FUNCTIONAL FENESTRATION

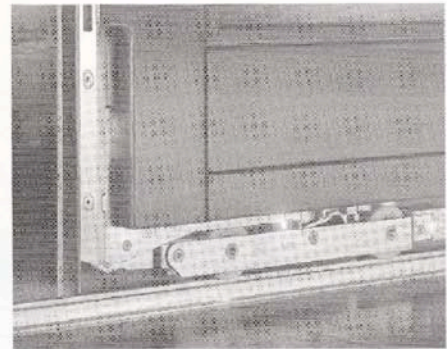

Don't let delays keep you and your products from working.

Functional Fenestration, inc., always stocks a broad selection of European Lift-slide and Multi-point door and window systems. We also offer the largest inventory of Truth Hardware anywhere.

FFi is the only distributor to consolidate the best American and European hardware for doors, windows, and skylights under one roof. And with our comprehensive technical support to back it all up, you are assured of on-time job delivery.

We don't just sell parts — we sell solutions.

Proud distributors of

Lift-slide Hardware allows effortless movement of larger panels (to 550 lbs.) and seals flawlessly at bottom in the locked position.

Solid Brass and Forged Aluminum Handles are available in two sizes and four finishes.

Multi-point Locking Systems

Keep doors and sash parallel and create a superior seal. An easy lift of the lever engages multiple locks at strategic points, and affords the comfort of increased security.
